Queen Amannisa

Saturday, September 22 6:30PM

Meet in the lobby 6:00PM

SCHC Host - Elizabeth Vancza

Never had Uighur food before? You're not alone. In North America, only a handful of restaurants specialize in the cuisine, which descends from a nomadic band of Turks who settled in northwestern China. The northern Chinese character is immediately evident—the emphasis on stuffed buns and hand-cut noodles, the use of star anise and chilies—but then you dig into the minced meat with noodles. This place is sure to please!

Matchbox Pizza

Sunday, September 23 6:30PM
Meet in the lobby 6:00PM
SCHC Host - Danielle Svestka

Bubbling thin-crust pizzas, local beer and a cool vibe have made us the neighborhood gathering place for a fun, friendly, casual dining experience any night of the week. But we're so much more than that. They use only the freshest ingredients in an approachable way, and work with local partners to bring you a fun, unique selection of beers, broad spectrum wines, and handcrafted signature cocktails you won't find anywhere else.

Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History

Established in 1910 and located on the National Mall, this prestigious museum, part of the Smithsonian Institution, holds the world's most extensive collection of natural history specimens and human artifacts including the remains of dinosaurs and tools used by early man.

Jaleo Crystal City Tapas Bar

Monday, September 24 6:30PM
Meet in the lobby 6:00PM
SCHC Host : Mary Rudolf

Imagined through the creative lens of Chef José Andrés and his team, Jaleo brings alive the spirit and flavors of Spain by showcasing the rich regional diversity of Spanish cuisine. Celebrating the traditional as well as the cutting-edge, Jaleo offers a taste of Spain in a festive, stylish, and casual atmosphere.

At Jaleo, plates are designed to be shared. But these are not just any small plates. They're the best authentically Spanish and local ingredients, simply prepared, and enjoyed with good friends and conversation.
