Crowe LLP has in-depth experience with creating and managing both niche and company-wide regulatory compliance programs for manufacturers and distributors with complex supply chains. Our team has expertise with a variety of regulations, including chemical regulatory (OSHA GHS, HazCom 2012, California Prop 65, EHS, Product Stewardship, EU REACH, EU RoHS, TSCA, etc.) and other sourcing and supply chain regulatory topics (Conflict Minerals, Extended Minerals Due Diligence, Anti-Human Trafficking Regulations, UK Modern Slavery Act, etc.) with a growing focus on Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) initiatives. We take on many roles for our clients and can tailor services to fit a specific business. We provide advisory services, perform due diligence, survey suppliers for regulatory information, create and present training materials to clients' employees, and draft relevant documents and disclosures. Crowe has multiple offices across the U.S. and our extended team can also provide audit and tax services in addition to product and supply chain compliance efforts.
