

Challenges and Solutions to Revamping an SDS system: A Journey in Upgrading Afton's Product Compliance system

Barbara Cotton, Sr. EHS Specialist - Regulatory Afton Chemical Corporation

Presenter biography

Barbara Cotton has almost 30 years' experience working between the chemical industry and environmental consulting. Barbara has a B.S in Geology from Cleveland State University and a Masters in Occupation Health from Medical College of Ohio. She has worked for 11 years as an industrial hygienist between two environmental consulting firms. The balance of her career is in product stewardship and regulatory compliance, which encompasses a wide variety of organic and inorganic chemistries working for Ferro Corporation, Hexion Corporation and now Afton Chemical Corporation.

Presentation abstract

Barbara Cotton has almost 30 years' experience working between the chemical industry and environmental consulting. Barbara has a B.S in Geology from Cleveland State University and a Masters in Occupation Health from Medical College of Ohio. She has worked for 11 years as an industrial hygienist between two environmental consulting firms. The balance of her career is in product stewardship and regulatory compliance, which encompasses a wide variety of organic and inorganic chemistries working for Ferro Corporation, Hexion Corporation and now Afton Chemical Corporation.