Eric R. Brooks, M.S.
Area Director – Region IX
Las Vegas Area OSHA Office

Presenter biography

Eric Brooks has been with OSHA for nearly 19 years—Most of his time on the frozen tundra of North Dakota. For six years he served as the Area Director for the Bismarck Office. In 2018 he became the Area Director for the Las Vegas office.

During his tenure he has been involved in a wide variety of safety and health related issues through enforcement inspections, education and outreach seminars, and emergency response actions. Recently he has presented before the Joint United States/European Union Occupational Safety and Health Conference and the United States – China Workplace Safety and Health Dialog; covering oil and gas enforcement and outreach topics.

Eric is originally from the eastern seaboard, where he provided health and safety expertise to several counties and municipalities of Virginia. He has completed a master's degree in the field of environmental management from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas and currently resides in Las Vegas, Nevada.
